Confidentiality Undertaking

This English text is a reference translation. In the event of any discrepancy, the Japanese version shall prevail.

The undersigned company (the "Recipient") undertakes as follows in receiving information on battery energy storage and other renewable-energy projects from ScienceX Inc. (サイエンスエックス株式会社; the "Discloser").

Article 1 (Confidential Information)
"Confidential Information" means all information on a project disclosed by the Discloser to the Recipient (including its location, price, the seller and other related parties, and materials) and the fact that the project was introduced to the Recipient. It excludes information that is publicly known, information that the Recipient lawfully held at the time of disclosure, and information lawfully obtained from a third party.

Article 2 (Confidentiality and No Use for Other Purposes)
The Recipient shall use the Confidential Information only to evaluate the project and shall not disclose it to any third party without the Discloser's consent (including by e-mail), except to its own officers, employees and professionals bound by a duty of confidentiality to the extent necessary for the evaluation, or where disclosure is required by law.

Article 3 (No Direct Contact)
Without the Discloser's consent, the Recipient shall not contact the seller, landowners or any other related party that it learns of through the Confidential Information, directly or through a third party, in relation to the project.

Article 4 (Term)
This Undertaking is effective for three (3) years from the date of its submission.

Article 5 (Governing Law and Jurisdiction)
This Undertaking is governed by the laws of Japan, and the Tokyo District Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction in the first instance.
